The Centennial Trail was named in honor of the 100-year anniversary of the formation of the Metropolitan Water Reclamation District of Greater Chicago (MWRC). The MWRC was instrumental in making the Centennial Trail possible by dedicating the necessary land on which it stands.